

Diversity in the media is a good thing. Enabling large companies to do away with this diversity is a danger to democracy. I am requesting that you leave the laws limiting ownership and cross-ownership of media outlets.